| Sunday, March 29, 2020 | Online Life Night Materials                   | Please complete reviewing these materials by 4/4  | "Persona Christi - Priesthood"The goal of this night is to define and affirm the priesthood and help the teens to discern their vocation. It will also affirm any young men who feel they may have a calling to the priesthood and encourage them to continue to explore that calling.  |
| Sunday, April 5, 2020  | Online Life Night Materials                   | Please complete reviewing these materials by 4/18 | "Kicking Up Dust - The Diaconate"This night will encourage and empower teenagers to live lives of humble servanthood with joy in imitation of the diaconate. It will also provide the teens with concrete ways to serve in their homes, schools, and at church.   |
| Sunday, April 12, 2020 | No Life Teen Activities, Happy Easter! |   |  |
| Sunday, April 19, 2020 | Online Life Night Materials                   | Please complete reviewing these materials by 4/25 | "The Bridegroom Says Come - Consecrated Life"The goal of this Life Night is to introduce the vocation of consecrated life as a person giving up earthly marriage for marriage with God. It will connect this special relationship with the ability to hear God's voice, and challenge teens to learn from aspects of the consecrated life, especially in the realm of prayer. |
| Sunday, April 26, 2020 | Online Life Night Materials                   | Please complete reviewing these materials by 5/2  | "Rosetta Stone - Vocation Today"The goal of this night is to close out the semester on vocation by re-emphasizing our universal vocation. The universal call to holiness is the most important vocation the teens can discover. It is only in living out holiness in our daily lives that we discover God's greater and larger plan for us.                                   |
